

St John's Glastonbury

Come and Sing Choral Favourites

Saturday 24th July 2021

This is one of the first opportunities for choral singers to sing again. Eighteen months of Covid restrictions have prevented so many choirs from rehearsing and performing; this is one of the earliest chances to celebrate the opportunity to sing again!

Repertoire: Handel ~ Zadok the Priest
Handel ~ Hallelujah Chorus
Parry ~ I was Glad
Fauré ~ Cantique de Jean Racine

Organist Miles Quick (St Mary's Taunton)
Conductor Matthew Redman (St John's Glastonbury)

1pm Register
1.30pm Rehearsal 1
2.30pm Tea break 1
3pm Rehearsal 2
4pm Tea break 2
5pm Informal performance

Cost £20 per singer (all copies provided)

Covid security

- the weather is due to deteriorate by Saturday, but we will open as many doors as possible to ventilate the church
- People will be asked to hand sanitise on arrival
- chairs will be spaced apart, maybe not exactly 2m, but certainly not next to each other as we would normally expect
- We will not be singing in masks, but these may be worn if preferred for tea breaks. Singers will be asked to space themselves out in tea breaks

Parking

St John's Church is about half way down Glastonbury High Street, BA6 9DR. The nearest car parks are St John's car park, BA6 9JJ, Butt Close car park, BA6 9HY, and Silver Street car park, BA6 8BS. (NB If you think of parking on Morrison's, be aware that it is now under video surveillance.)